ICELAND ≫

POPULATION

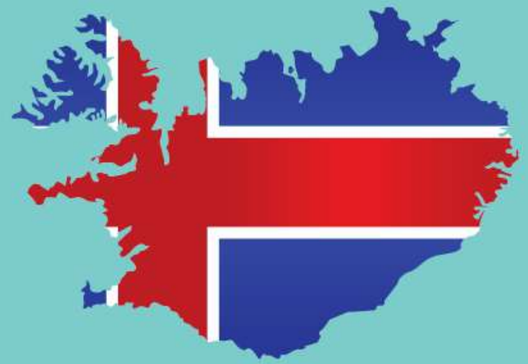
This country has a population of about a quarter of a million people. Most of the people live in towns. Reykjavik is the capital and the largest city.

CLIMATE

Iceland is not as cold as its name sounds. The temperature in January in Reykjavik is the same as in New York city.

LANGUAGE

Icelanders speak Icelandic, which is similar to German, but 99 percent of Icelanders also speak English.



QUALITY OF LIFE

Icelanders are the hardest workers in Europe. They work the longest hours. Many people have two or three jobs, and children work during school vacations. Icelanders work hard because life is very expensive, and they want a high quality of life.

QUALITY OF LIFE

Iceland is the most expensive country in Europe. Iceland doesn't make cars or machines. Many of these things come from other countries. That is why they are expensive.

However, Iceland has a lot of fish, so fish is not expensive.

HEALTHCARE & EDUCATION

Icelanders have a great system for health and education. Health care and education are free. All children must go to school from age 6 to age 16. Every person in Iceland can read and write. Icelanders read a lot. They read more books than any other people in the world.
